PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

Krasnoyarsk Army Barracks North is located in the northeast section of Krasnoyarsk and is adjacent to the Krasnoyarsk Airfield (Figure 1). The installation is not rail served, but is served by the principal streets and roads of Krasnoyarsk.

A detailed analysis of the installation (Figures 2 and 3) reveals that the facility may function as two separate units. The southern portion appears to be an airfield administration/support complex while the northern portion appears to be a military school or military support area.

The entire facility encompasses 450 acres and consists of 295 buildings, including 63 administrative buildings/barracks, 125 support buildings, and 106 general storage buildings. The installation appears to be secured with a single fence.

coverage indicates moderate winter activity throughout the installation. The installation's initial coverage in is of poor photographic image quality and precludes interpretation. No apparent changes have taken place in the installation since

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Road Service

Served by primary and secondary streets of the urban complex.

Aircraft Landing Strips

The installation is adjacent to Krasnoyarsk Airfield.

Administrative and Troop Housing Areas

Area D1 (Figure 1) contains 37 administrative buildings/barracks and 36 support buildings.

Area D2 contains 26 administrative buildings/barracks and 22 support buildings. This is probably an administrative and barracks area for the airfield.

General Storage Areas

Area E1 contains 68 general storage buildings and 31 support buildings.

Area E2 contains 20 general storage buildings and seven support buildings.

Area E3 contains 19 general storage buildings and four support buildings. This is probably a general storage area for Krasnoyarsk Airfield.

Other Buildings

Area H1 contains two buildings whose function is undetermined.

Area H2 contains 23 buildings whose function is undetermined, but which may be in support of the airfield.

Athletic Fields

Areas K1 and K2 are rectangular troop assembly and/or athletic areas.

Small-Arms Firing Ranges

There are five small-arms firing ranges, with the following dimensions: L1, 600 by 60 feet, L2 and L3, 300 by 45 feet, L4 and L5, 90 by 45 feet.
